Fall 2010:

Formed in early spring 2006, the Raleigh Sidewinders is eastern North Carolina's wheelchair (i.e. Quad Rugby) team. The team is a result of the interest generated from the academy award nominated documentary MURDERBALL and the success of a local quad rugby clinic sponsored by the North Carolina Spinal Cord Injury Association (NCSCIA). The Raleigh Sidewinders are official members of the US Quad Rugby Association, (USQRA), www.quadrugby.com. The Raleigh Sidewinders is also one of two teams in North Carolina and included in the Atlantic South division of the USQRA.

Highlights of the past seasons include hosting the local annual tournaments in Raleigh, the Raleigh Rumble. The Sidewinders were also the proud hosts of the USQRA 2008 Atlantic Sectional tournament! The team is looking forward to an active season this year, with expected participation in six scheduled tournaments along the east coast.

The team is comprised of individuals with disabilities that preclude their play in competitive, able-bodied sports. Players must have mobility impairments in their arms and legs to be considered eligible for participation. Most of the players have sustained cervical spinal cord injuries and have some type of quadriplegia as a result. The players are active members in their community, striving for a level of skill and competition offered by quad rugby.

The Raleigh Sidewinders quad rugby team is a program sponsored by NCSCIA, a non-profit organization whose mission is to provide resources to support the highest level of independence, health and personal fulfillment for those with spinal cord injuries and disease.

The Sidewinders are very appreciative of all their sponsorships, support staff, volunteers and fans. They are engaged in a solid working relationship and support from the City of Raleigh Parks and Recreation and the Cary Parks, Recreation and Cultural Resources. Due to their expanding support network in the community, the Sidewinders continue to develop and grow in size.

The vision of the Raleigh Sidewinders is to provide team members with an opportunity for personal growth, physical outlet and competition with adequate equipment and resources. They need your help in continuing to provide opportunities for participation in wheelchair rugby. Several sponsorship packages have been developed for your consideration. All donations are tax deductible. Thank you for your interest and support!
